

Young Ecologists Talk & Interact

---

Date: 15th July 2010

Dear Sir/ Madam,

Subject: Student Ecology Conference (YETI 2010)

We invite students and researchers from your institution to participate in YETI, a research conference in Ecology being organized at the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore from 5 - 7 October 2010.

Young Ecologists Talk and Interact (YETI) is a novel conference initiative for students and researchers working in the field of ecology in India being organized entirely by student volunteers. This event is meant to serve as a friendly and inspiring platform for ecology students and researchers early in their career to present and discuss their work, exchange ideas, and hopefully initiate collaborations with contemporaries from all over the country.

Participants can choose just to attend the conference or present their research work either as a talk or a poster (more details available in conference poster). They will also have the opportunity to listen to and interact with some of the eminent ecologists and conservation scientists in India. We will also be conducting workshops focusing on some of the basic skills required to carry out ecological research.

We have enclosed a conference poster that details other aspects of the event. We request you to display this in your institution. To apply for the conference, students should fill in our on-line application form made available at our website <http://www.meetyeti.in/>. If that is not possible for some reason, students can also apply by filling out and sending the attached application form in an envelope addressed to:
